MARGARET TRUDEAU – KEYNOTE SPEAKER – CELEBRATED CANADIAN / MENTAL HEALTH ADVOCATE

Margaret Trudeau is a Canadian icon, celebrated both for her role in the public eye and as a respected mental-health issues advocate. From becoming a prime minister's wife at a young age, to the loss of both her son and her former husband, to living with bi-polar disorder, Margaret tirelessly shares her personal stories to remind others of the importance of nurturing the body, mind, and spirit. Margaret is the author of four books, including her bestselling title, Changing My Mind, which charts her life's ups and downs, and her latest title, The Time of Your Life, which offers women an inspirational and practical approach to creating a healthy, happy, secure and satisfying future. Margaret sits on the Executive Advisory Board of the UBC Mental Health Institute as a community advocate, and she is the former Honorary President of WaterAid, a charitable Canadian non-governmental agency that is dedicated to helping poor communities in developing countries build sustainable water-supply and sanitation services. She is also the proud mother to Prime Minister Justin Trudeau.

DR. DARREN LUND, PH.D.

Darren Lund is a Professor in the Werklund School of Education at the University of Calgary, where his research examines social justice activism in schools, communities, and professional education programs. Darren was a high school teacher for 16 years, and formed the award-winning Students and Teachers Opposing Prejudice (STOP) program.

DR. BONNY NORTON, FRSC

Bonny Norton is a Professor and Distinguished University Scholar in the Department of Language and Literacy Education, UBC. Her primary research interests are identity and language learning, critical literacy, and international development. Recent publications include a 2017 special issue on language teacher identity and a 2013 second edition of Identity and Language Learning (Multilingual Matters).

NATHAN HALL

Nathan Hall is a teacher trainer and EAP faculty member at Douglas College in New Westminister, B.C. He is also a Community Coordinator for Tutela and is Social Media Chair for BC TEAL. He is interested in pedagogically sound uses of technology in language teaching.

GARFIELD GINI-NEWMAN

Garfield Gini-Newman explores how to teach through wonder-based learning while nurturing deep conceptual understanding and genuine competence. As an associate professor at OISE/University of Toronto and the senior national consultant with The Critical Thinking Consortium, Garfield has worked with thousands of teachers across grades and subjects, helping them to frame learning around engaging and provocative activities and authentic assessments.

Requests for Garfield's services have taken him from Asia to the Middle East, Europe, the Caribbean and across North America. His interest in effective teaching and learning has led him to actively explore the challenges and opportunities presented by teaching and learning in the digital age. In addition to his work at the University of Toronto and delivering workshops, Garfield has also authored several articles, chapters in books and seven textbooks and has taught in the faculties of education at York University and the University of British Columbia. His most recent book co-authored with Roland Case, Creating Thinking Classrooms has received widespread praise from leading educators across Canada and internationally.

MICHAEL COLLINS & DR. JULIE CLAYTON

Michael Collins is an inspired motivational speaker who has traveled extensively throughout the world, encouraging audiences toward positive life change. He brings his life-long training as a behaviour consultant, with 25 years of progressing experience in supporting individuals and families in managing and changing challenging behaviours. Using a person-centered approach, his work has been built upon empowering individuals to identify personal strengths and to utilize these to achieve a life vision.

Dr. Julie Clayton has been an adult educator and mental health practitioner for over 25 years. Having taught in numerous academic settings, she is very familiar with the challenges adult students face, particularly those who are trying to find their feet as students while adjusting to new cultural settings. Alongside her teaching and training role as a mental health first aid facilitator, she operates a private counselling practice in New Westminister, BC. She works with clients facing mental health challenges, with specialization in recovering from trauma and abuse.
